

National Aboriginal Day is a day that is solely for the recognition of aboriginal peoples across Canada. The day was first celebrated in 1996 after former Governor General, Romeo LeBlanc, proclaimed for the day to be celebrated every year on June 21. However, most provinces do not celebrate this day as a statutory holiday. Today, National Aboriginal Day starts the national "Celebrate Canada" week which also includes the National Holiday of Quebec, Canadian Multiculturalism Day, and Canada Day. Throughout the country, celebrations in communities and cities are held. One celebration that you could visit is not held on National Aboriginal Day but from June 13 - 14 at the Agricultural Grounds is the 20th Annual Aboriginal Gathering & 12th Annual Pow Wow! Father's Day - June 21

This year Father's Day is on June 21, 2015. Father's Day is a day that is for honouring and recognizing the sacrifices and the accomplishments of fathers throughout the world. Fathers are recognized by family and friends; regardless of whether they are their biological father or not. The first Father's Day was celebrated on June 19, 1910 in Spokane, Washington. This happened when a woman named Sonora Dodd wanted a day to recognize fathers just as we did on Mothers Day. Celebrations for Fathers Day is similar to Mothers Day. You can spend time with the father figure of your life to show them that you appreciate them. You can make a card or buy a gift for them. You can take them to brunch or make brunch for them. You can participate in a marathon where the monies raised goes towards prostate cancer research. Enjoy this Fathers Day with the special people in your life.

F.A.Q

Q: I did my income review, why is this my rent amount?

A: Adjustments do not take place until the first of July. That is when your rental amount will change according to your Income Review.

Q: Where are you located?

A: We are located in Peace River, at 9910 - 102 Street. Across from the Bottle Depot on the back of the apartment building.

Q: I paid my rent on the 7th of the last month. Does this mean that I can pay my rent on the 7th of the next month?

A: No. Your rent is due on the FIRST of EACH month. We know that you are busy people, we respect that, so you do have a three day grace period where we won't charge you a late fee. Another option is to sign up to pay your rent directly from your bank account. You won't have to come in and pay anymore! Maintenance Tips

The season is finally here! We have been waiting for this all year!! Here are some maintenance tips to keep your home clean so you can enjoy more of the summer sun!

1) Is your microwave crusted with food? Place a glass bowl of half water and half vinegar in the microwave, and then turn it on high for three minutes. This will soften up the crusted food and you will be able to wipe away the mess easily.

2) Every three months you should
- wipe down the inside of the fridge & replace the baking soda
- flip your mattress and vacuum your mattress and/or box spring
- clean your baseboards & trim
If you do it this month you won't have to do it again until September!

3) Stained tub? Mix the same amount of cream of tartar and baking soda. Add lemon juice to make a paste. Rub the paste into the stain and let it sit for 30 minutes. Rinse well with water
